Announcement of 2019 ARDA Scholarship Program

The American Railway Development Association is pleased to announce the availability of scholarships to undergraduate and graduate level students sponsored by a current ARDA member.

About ARDA

The American Railway Development Association (ARDA) is a not-for-profit educational trade association founded in 1906 to promote Economic Development, Real Estate Development, Technology, and Environmental Activities of North American Railroads. ARDA achieves this through the advancement of ideas and education of members to further promote the effectiveness of railway development.

ARDA encourages membership from all classes of railroads throughout North America. Members also include professionals from other associations, agencies, and railroad service partners that have a direct effect on rail business today. ARDA's membership variety provides a wide perspective on issues facing the railroad industry in the 21st Century.

Amount of Awards

This year, ARDA is offering three scholarships to either undergraduate or graduate students. They are:

- One (1) $2,500 President's Scholarship
- Two (2) $1,250 Individual Scholarships

Scholarship funds will be sent directly to the student at the beginning of the next term of study. Students must be in

Eligibility

To be eligible for consideration, an applicant must:

- Be sponsored by a current Active or Honorary ARDA member. ARDA members are permitted to sponsor one applicant per sponsorship year.
- Be enrolled either:
 - As a full-time college student at an accredited two-year or four-year college or university, pursuing an associate, bachelor's or graduate level degree.
 - As a high school student expecting to graduate and having confirmed your enrollment at an accredited two-year or four-year college or university.

Application Deadline

A complete application and all accompanying materials must be submitted by March 1, 2019 for consideration. The absence of any the materials listed in the next section will render the application incomplete.

The Application Process

To apply for this scholarship, all materials listed below must be submitted to the ARDA Scholarship Committee:

1. A completed Application for the ARDA Scholarship Program, including the narrative specified in Section E of the application.
2. A letter written from an Active or Honorary ARDA member, who is current on dues for the 2018-19 ARDA membership year, confirming their sponsorship of the applicant. Sponsorship letters may be submitted electronically, but must be sent from the sponsor directly to staff@amraildev.com.
3. An official transcript from all schools attended, including high school and each college attended indicating all college-level work completed through the fall semester of 2018. The transcript(s) should list courses taken or in which currently enrolled. Graduate and undergraduate applicants entering their junior and senior year in college are not required to provide high school transcripts.
4. An essay, 500 words or less, addressing the following:

How do you think you can benefit society by pursuing a career in the rail industry?

5. Two letters of recommendation written on official letterhead. At least one of the letters must be from a faculty member from an educational institution the applicant attended in the past, or at which is currently enrolled. Letters of recommendation may be submitted electronically, but must be sent from the reference directly to staff@amraildev.com.

It is requested that applicants submit their application form, narrative statement, and essay electronically to staff@amraildev.com with “2019 ARDA Scholarship” in the subject line.

Please arrange to have transcripts, and any sponsorship or recommendation letters not submitted electronically, sent directly to:
